I AM THE AMERICAN SOLDIER

OXSHEER SMITH

Hundreds of thousands of American soldiers are saying in their own way what was written by Edward Markham, editor of the St. Peter (Minn.) Herald, the night before he enlisted in the United States Army in 1917 . . . What he printed then is worth reprinting again and again:

"I am a mother's son . . . I am the pride of a family and part of a home . . . I love my life as you love yours . . . I am a youth in years and experience in life, yet I am a gambler, betting the highest stakes that a man can wage . . . my life . . . If I win, you win; if I lose I have lost all . . . The loss is mine, not yours; and there is a grieved mother, a saddened family and a broken home to which I can never return . . . .

"I ask only for the Godspeed and support of my nation in return for laying upon the altar of my country my all . . . For bravery and blood will you furnish bullets and bread? Will you pawn your shekels if I pawn myself? Will you bet your gold while I risk my life? I am the flower of a nation's manhood, the glory of a noble race . . . I am the American soldier . . . I am the Boy in the Trenches."

They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money

There are only seven more days of the Third War Loan drive . . . Your conscience will tell you whether you are meeting the obligation of an American citizen.

Oxsheer Smith

District Chairman Milam, Bell, Robertson and Leon counties.

Treasury Assistant

EMORY B. CAMP

CAMP NAMED ASSISTANT LOAN DIRECTOR HERE

Emory B. Camp who pioneered war financing and directed defense stamp and bond selling before America entered the war and who has been a major factor in bond sales successes, has been named first assistant to Oxsheer Smith, as representave of the Treasury Department.

The territory in which Mr. Camp is first assistant are the four counties in which Mr. Smith has so successfully directed the loans and includes Milam.

Appointment of Mr. Camp was made several days ago and he has accepted the responsibility and began his work early Thursday.

The first Job Mr. Camp tackled as assistant Treasury Representative was to compile a report from all districts in Milam county on the current Third Loan bond sales. This report, telephoned to The Herald around 9 p. m. Thursday made possible the first full report on county sales thus far available to The Herald.

Mr. Camp, lawyer, is chairman of the Defense Council and in this place was instrumental in building an organization of patriotic men and women who have given Milam county nationwide prominence for their support of the war effort.

Mr. Camp will do everything possible, in his new place, to co-operate and further the Third War Loan.

Oxsheer Smith, treasury representative and President of the Citizens National Bank, was pleased to have Mr. Camp as his assistant.

County Commissioners' Court met in special session Tuesday afternoon and approved the 1943 Tax Rolls, as given by W. A. Bonds, Tax Assessor and Collector which showed an increase over last year of $135,000.

AMMUNITION FOR FARMERS AVAILABLE

Milam County farmers and ranchers may purchase during any calendar quarter 100 rounds of .22 caliber long rifle cartridges or other rim fire cartridges; 40 rounds of center fire catridges such as .30-30 caliber and 25 rounds of any gauge shot gun shells by executing Certificate No. 4 of L-286 according to H. L. Atkinson Chairman of Milam County USDA War Board. The War Food Administration has been concerned for some time about the shortage of ammunition for use by farmers in controlling predatory animals and birds Atkinson said. The amount available for the past year has been so inadequate that many farmers have been unable to obtain the small quota permitted under War Production Board Limitation Order L-286.

A program has been adopted under which approximately 100 million shot gun shells, 12 million center fire rifle cartridges and 100 million .22 caliber rim fire cartridges will be available for distribution.

Farmers and ranchers who need ammunition should execute Certificate No. 4 which can be obtained from their dealer. Those needing a larger amount of of ammunition than can be secured by using Certificate No. 4 may purcrase a special quota (50 rounds of .22 caliber long rifle cartridges, 20 center fire rifle cartridges and 25 shot gun shells) by using certificate No. 5, provided they secure these amounts prior to October 1 or their written orders are in the hands of the dealer by that date. If a farmer or rancher needs a larger amount of ammunition than can be secured by using Certificate No. 4 and 5, he may apply to the Government Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., using Form PD-860.

Marak Picnic and Supper Postponed

Father Ben Holub of St. Cyril and Methodius church at Marak, announced today that the picnic and supper planned there had been postponed to the first Wednesday in October which is the 6th.

The picnic was scheduled for Sept. 22. The picnic will begin at 3 p. m. and the supper will climax the days activities. Father Holub, a leader and very popular at Marak and in Cameron, said that the auction this year would be larger and more interesting, that three bales of cotton are to be sold.

Remember the picnic and supper, with sausage and chicken, will be held held on Wednesday, October 6th.

Visitors in the city from Thorndale on Tuesday were: Adolph R. Koch, W. A. Conn, Loy Edmundson and J. M. Ellis.

EUGENE KNIPP KILLED IN NORTH AFRICA AREA

Eugene Knipp, 28, Cameron born and reared, was killed in north Africa on September 7, it was announced here Tuesday by Mrs. Kathryn K. Robbins, aunt of the dead soldier.

Knipp was in the signal corps and had been in North Africa for the past 6 months. No details were announced by the government in its message which went first to Mrs. Marie Roberson, a sister in Corpus Christi.

Eugene was the son of Will Knipp, a brother of Mrs. Robbins. He was born and reared in Cameron, graduating from high school here along about 1932. After graduation from high school he took a position with the Schuhmacher Company in Cameron and continued to work with the firm and at one time was directing sales in Houston.

He enlisted in the army about a year ago, it was said here and was thought to have been in Missouri or a northern center when he entered the signal corps.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Guayne shipp, and their daughter, only a few years old.

Chas. M. Hicks former member of the faculty here and now county superintendent, spoke highly of Eugene Knipp. Many friends here will remember him from high school days and later in business.

LOAN DRIVE PLANS CALL FOR BOND IN EVERY HOME

The 3rd War Loan drive in Milam county calls for a bond in every home.

Looking in the direction of a thorough canvas of the homes of the county, the next few days will see an intensified campaign to bring the drive to a successful conclusion.

Need is felt that each individual should be contacted. Thus far this has not been done, but must be in order that the people may have a share in the Loan and at the same time such a program is necessary if the quota is met.

Emory B. Camp has advanced a theme for the remaining days: "Back the attack with a bond in every home."

Last night a bond rally was held in Rockdale with some 60 attending, workers from the surrounding territory. Tonight in Buckholts another meeting will be held and Wednesday night Mr. Camp plans a meeting in Cameron of the workers here.

An emergency exists with the limited time left. The county is far below its quota, has some million and a half to two million yet to raise.

In The Pacific

W. J. FAULKNER

W. J. Faulkner volunteered for sea duty and was accepted by the Seabees, men who are building and maintaining Uncle Sam's bases for ships and planes of the navy all over the world.

Faulkner lives in Cameron and has been a resident of the county for years. Mrs. Faulkner is with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Cameron.

Shortly after enlisting Faulkner went to the west coast and was in the Pacific in a short time. Military rules forbid the information being published but it can be said that he is now and for sometime has been at an important base in the Pacific.

Mr. Faulkner writes to Mrs. Faulkner often and recently she received through the mail a cocoanut with out side shell, prepared especially for mailing by enterprising peoples in the Pacific outpost.

E. L. McGuire of Rockdale was a Cameron visitor Monday.

GERMANS PUT TORCH TO NAPLES

SCHOOL FOR FOOD HANDLERS ENDS HERE

A three weeks Food Handler's School held by the Milam-Robertson County Health Unit in co-operation with the State Health Department ended Wednesday nnght. Sixty-three managers and employes of eating and drinking establishments in Cameron were registered for these classes which were taught by Roy L. Reinarz of the State Health Department.

Particular emphasis was placed on food sanitation, glass and dish sterilization, personal hygiene and general cleanliness around the respective establishments.

This is a prelude to stricter enforcement of the existing health laws applying to food establishments around Cameron, and it is felt that the course of instruction will be invaluable both to the places of business and to the Health Department in its work toward raising the standard of food sanitation in our community.

REV. J. R. RITCHIE IS BURIED AT GRAND SALINE

Rev. J. R. Ritchie, former pastor of the Methodist church in Buckholts and father of Mrs. John Meyer of this city, died suddenly Saturday afternoon, September 8, 1943.

Rev. Ritchie died at the home of his daughter. He was a retired minister and was pastor there.

Surviving are four children and four grand chiidren. Funeral services were held Sunday at Grand Saline the family home.

COUNTY BOND TOTAL IS NEARING 4 MILLIONS

While war bond sales were much lower Friday than Thursday when more than a million was reported, the grand total at 3 p. m. was $3,444,700 according to information telephoned to The Herald by Emory B. Camp, assistant treasury representative.

Mr. Camp reported that $157,300 in war bonds had been sold during Friday.

More than 60 per cent of the five and a half million dollar quota has been raised.

The success in the present drive is a credit to the people who in the 2nd War Loan oversubscribed their quota by a larger percentage than any other county in America.

The loan drive will end in September. Milam county was given a larger quota than Bell or any of the surrounding counties with the exception of McLennan.

NEGROES ORGANIZE FOR WAR LOAN DRIVE HERE

War Loan Drive among Negroes in Cameron was begun when E. C. Cole met seven of their key citizens and gave specific information about the plans for the bond drive as it is being carried on here. Results were that a War Bond Drive Committee was organized and plans for selling bonds were set. Rev. P. R. Humber, pastor of Cameron Grove Church was named chairman of the committee while C. L. Sadberry, Principal of O. J. Thomas School was named secretary. Sub-Committee chairmen from each church and from two other organizations were named.

A mas meeting of great interest to all Negroes of Cameron will be held at the Cameron Grove Church at 8:30 p. m. Friday, September 24.

Oxsheer Smith, treasury representative in four counties and other officials of the drive have been invited to the meeting and are expected to appear on the program. On the same program a wounded soldier from McClosky Hospital will speak. All Negroes are hereby asked to be present and on time to see how they can help in the drive.

It is the general opinion of the committee that Negroes will give a creditable account of themselves in Cameron during the drive even though they are getting a very late start.

HITLER'S ARMY RUNS FROM ALLIED FIGHTERS

Naples, historic and a world landmark has been destroyed by the Germans.

The torch was put to the city as the Germans began evacuation.

Adolph Hitler once said that if he went down in the struggle he would carry with him the Europe he has mastered since 1939 and it would be in ruins.

Smoke and flame indicated that the ancient city, old before the birth of Christianity, had been methodically burned, that little or nothing would be left of the once beautiful gem of Salerno gulf.

It was pointed out in communications that no allied bombs and not a single artillery shell had been fired into the city. The German destruction of Naples was a typical example of Hun vandalism.

The rapidly unfolding picture of the invasion of Italy Wednesday saw the Germans in full flight before the converging armies of America and Britain.

Allied leaders expressed belief that the Germans would leave Italian cities in ashes in their retreat to the Po river.

Premier Joseph Stalin of Russia, for the first time, has acknowledged and praised the American people for the aid given Russia and has called upon the American people to buy war bonds to encourage the 3rd Loan now in progress.

The Red armies are within 18 miles of the Dneiper River and have pushed their way to Smolensk. Tuesday 7000 German soldiers were slain and some 1000 villages liberated.

The noon communication of the Red army said that the Germans were in mass retreat all along the 700 mile front to escape the greatest disaster of the war, if not in history.

General George C. Marshal, chief of staff, is slated to become commander of the European theatre and may succeed to a place held by General Foch in the last war.

Action With Paratroops

PVT. ERNEST O. GLASER

Pvt. Ernest O. Glaser, with the Parachute troops, has seen active combat duty in the African theatre, first in North Africa and again in Sicily.

Pvt. Glaser was injured in a demonstration at Pope Field shortly before he went overeas. He has recovered and has since seen action over the enemy lines.

Pvt. Glaser volunteered for service on February 18, 1941, and is a veteran. Only those with exceptional courage and great physical stamina are admited to the paratroops and then as volunteers. He first trained at San Antonio and from there went to Camp Roberts, Calif.

At Fort Benning, Ga., he got his paratroop training and later went to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where he remained for a few days and then went overseas.

Pvt. Glaser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Glaser of Belmena and a graduate of Yoe High School.

At the time he sustained injuries in a jump at Camp Pope the commanding officer sent letters to his parents and to Lt. Harold Hogard, Walter Cross and William Mason, expressing hope for their recovery and regrets over their mishap.

BULLDOG PASSES NEARLY WRECK US IN LAST HALF

With a two point lead that came as a result of the good toe of Frank Torno, the Yoemen emerged victor in their first season game Friday night against McGregor.

The story of the game is one of thrills, penalties, near fights and a referee's error that cost the Yoemen one touchdown.

While the team of Coach Dick Young, playing their first game of the season, got away to a good start by scoring in the first quarter, they were hanging on at the end and could have lost by a touchdown.

Cameron chose to defend the east goal and kicked off to McGregor. On the first play, Gunn for the Bulldogs who was a constant threat, made first down but the Cameron line braced and the ball went over. On third down, Torno who scored three touchdowns, took the ball in a hand off from Robert Riddle and raced 40 yards around the McGregor right end for the touchdown. He kicked goal and the score was 7 to 0 in favor of the Yoemen.

The fighting started a few moments later when a Bulldog backfield man slugged Darrell Tindall, the Cameron left end. Referee W. C. Wiese promtly dealt out a 15 yard penalty, one of many he enforced in the game.

The Yoemen's second touchdown came when McGregor, for fighting and for abusing the referee, took two 15 yard penalties in a row which placed the ball on the McGregor 2 foot line. The Yoemen took over and in three tries Torno went over and promptly kicked goal.

The Yoemen lost a touchdown in the middle of the third quarter when Referee Wiese accidentlly blew his whistle as Torno raced down the sidelines for the score. The rule book simply says the ball is dead when the whistle blows. Mr. Wiese confessed his error but could do nothing about it. It was a bonafide touchdown. The score should have been Cameron 20 and the Bulldogs 12.

The play on which Torno scored originated on the Cameron 49 yard line. He took a hand off from Riddle cut for the sidelines and up the field for the score.

The Bulldogs found themselves late

SAYS GERMANS TOOK EL DUCE FROM ITALIANS

Soviet Russia, impatient and often critical of Allied conduct of their share of the war was virtually promised a second front across the channel into Europe Tuesday by Winston Churchill, the British Prime Minister.

Mr. Churchill, speaking in Commons, made an unusual address and one of great length, detailing all that has happened in the past few months. He said that the Mediterranean battle was never anything but a preliminary, though it has succeded in diverting much strength from the Russian front.

He said that Mussolini was taken away from the Italian people by the Germans.

As Mr. Churchill arrived at 10 Downing street on yesterday crowds beset him, calling for a second front. The British people are getting a bit impatient with the delay, though this seems strange for Britishers for of all people they are the masters at delay.

Military experts seemed inclined to discount any invasion attempt this year. It may not come before spring of 1944.

The British 8th army is meeting little resistance in its march up the leg of the Italian boot. The American 5th army has captured one city 16 miles inland from the sea at Salerno.

Small islands off the shore in the Italian battle area are being taken one by one. Venice has been severely bombed by Allied planes. This city is in the north portion of Italy on the Adriatic sea.

AMERICANS SWEEP GERMANS BACK

Texas and Oklahoma, states which gave thousands of fighting men to the army in 1917, were realizing on the grit and determination of their sons again Saturday as the American 5th, made up largerly of these men and led by the Virginian, General Mark W. Clark, were sweeping the Germans out of Salerno off the bridgehead of the Italian coast.

The Germans had been unable to dislodge the Texans and Oakies and were forced to fall back when the Americans finally got down to business. The Germans were in retreat all along the line.

The British 8th Army under General Montgomery had established contact with the American 5th to make an offensive line of United Nations forces entirely across Italy.

The Allies were using captured Italian bases and bringing to bear the full might of Allied air power.

Reinforcements continued to pour into Italy. The armies of the Allies steadily mounting are no longer numerically less than the enemy. The march is on and in the words of General Montgomery, "we are on our way."

Over in the South Pacific with the Japs losing Lae and all bases on northwestern shores of New Guiena a message from General MacArthur said that "We are on our way, with the help of God, to liberate the fallen Philippines."

A pincers movement eminating from the offensive begun by the Allies at Naples was developing well. The Americans had driven a 15 mile wedge in the German lines.

Berlin was bombed for the third night in succession.

The Red army was outflanking the Nazi and endangering the German lines all along the Eastern front.

A large force of American Marauder bombers returned from attacks over occupied France at noon Saturday. The mission was described as a heavy attack and in great force. The results of the raid were not announced.

The 'A and Eagle' Has Learned to Fly

Impassable roads? Mountainous territory? An urgent need to move fighting men, supplies and even jeeps by air? Our armed forces have found the answer. It is one of the thrilling new developments of the war—the use of gliders, which are now being produced in imposing numbers.

Can skilled metal workers and cabinet makers turn quickly from manufacturing refrigeration equipment to making glider parts? Yes indeed!

Our Refrigeration Division volunteered long ago to help Uncle Sam build gliders. The shops that once made equipment for ice cream and frozen food dealers the country over were revamped completely and old and new workers trained for this important enterprise.

INCIDENTALLY, our Refrigeration Division was created many years ago as a result of experience gained in making millions of tons of ice to produce the world's most popular beer.

in the third and from that time on the Yoemen were just another ball club hoping for the final whistle. Gunn, after a try at the lines took the ball from Fletcher at center, ran back 20 yards and whipped the ball down the field for 50 yards right into the hands of Spradly who stepped over to score. Gunn tried to run the ball over for the extra point but failed and the score was 14 to 6.

Opening the fourth quarter the Bulldogs made a game of it. They ran and passed the ball all over the field, making another touchdown by completing three passes in a row. Gunn again not electing to kick, tried to pass the ball over but Tindall broke up the attempt.

Time was getting short and after an exchange of punts the ball was on the Bulldog 28 yard line. Torno had a game average of around 47 years. Gunn cocked his good right arm and shot the ball down the field and it was gahered in on the Yoemen 30 by Spradley. As the teams lined up for the next play the game ended.

Coach Young while praising his boys for their win, said he noted a number of weak places in the team and will correct them. Billy Joe Michalka the 135 pound center, played a whale of a game. Lane Horstmann at end and a new comer to the field this year looked good and Tindall, one of the lettermen was a standout. Robert Riddle who alternated with Erle Esslinger in the backfield turned in a good game and the whole line which is plugged with Billy Black and Ray Young at tackle, Hanel, Phipps, McDonald and McGoldrick at guard, showed it can take it and play a good defensive game when the goal is threatened.

The Yoemen were amazingly poor on pass defense.

Otto Gerick a 178 pound tackle and Albert Matula 145 pound back give great promise.

The attendance was poor, only a few people from McGregor coming over and the north stands were sparsely populated by Cameron fans. Frances Cox's Yoe Hi band, cut down from losses, gave the half program and it was very good.

John R. Hays, Postmaster, was the Kearn Tips of the game. He was at the micraphone to keep the fans informed.

Directs War Loan

Oxsheer Smith United States Treasury Representative in four counties, for the 3rd War Loan, makes an appeal to the people for support of the loan in the remaining days of the drive.

Mr. Smith brings his final appeal in the form of a famous heart throb which came out of individual expressions in the late war of 1917. How it applies today none has bettter discerned that Mr. Smith, who, though a giant in the financial world is at home in the atmosphere of sentiment and eloquence.

Here is the message:

I AM THE AMERICAN SOLDIER

Hundreds of thousands of other American soldiers are saying in their own way what was written by Edward Markham, editor of the St Peter, (Minn.) Herald, the night before he enlisted in the United States Army in 1917 . . . What he printed then is worth reprinting again and again:

"I am a mother's son . . . I am the pride of a family and part of a home . . . I love my life as you love yours . . . I am a youth in years and experience in life, yet I am a gambler, betting the highest stakes that a man can wage . . . my life . . . If I win, you win; if I lose I have lost all . . . The loss is mine, not yours; and there is a grieved mother, a saddened family and a broken home to which I can never return. . . . .

"I ask only for the Godspeed and support of my nation in return for laying upon the altar of my country my all . . . For bravery and blood will you furnish bullets and bread? Will you pawn your shekels if I pawn myself? Will you bet your gold while I risk my life? I am the flower of a nation's manhood, the glory of a noble race . . . I am the American soldier . . . I am the Boy in the Trenches."

They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money

There are only seven more days of the Third War Loan drive . . . Your conscience will tell you whether you are meeting the obligation of an American Citizen.

OXSHEER SMITH,
District Chairman Milam, Bell, Rbinson and Leon counties.

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Kilpatrick, formerly of Sharp, now living at Thrall, observed the 70th anniversary of their wedding, at their home. Dr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick have many friends over Milam county who wish for them many more anniversaries of happiness.

AMERICANS IMPROVING POSITION AT NAPLES

In what has developed to be one of the major battles of the war for intensity if not for the number of men engaged in a small area was taking a heavy toll on both sides Wednesday as the American 5th army improved its position at Naples in Italy.

Besides gaining some ground the lines were improved by a strategic retreat. On the whole the situation was much improved.

Berlin, first reporting Tuesday that the Americans had been thrown back to the sea and were being evacuated, changed their story. Now it is a question as to how the battle will terminate. Here in America there is no question as to how the battle will terminate.

The Germans can never drive Americans out of battle or off the continent. General Eisenhower was throwing in major bodies of reinforcements.

General Montgomery is less than a hundred miles away coming up fast from the toe of the Italian boot to make contact with the American 5th under General Clark.

The whereabouts of the American 7th army was unexplained.

Over in the South Pacific the Americans are within 2 miles of Lae on New Guiena. The town of Salamaua has already fallen to the Americans.

Germany was being driven out of Russia and Bryansk has fallen and Novorazisk was certain to be taken if not already in Russian hands.

Lt and Mrs. Roger J. Rose have gone to Ashville, Wis., and to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on furlough.

Gordon Rae of Sandy Ridge visited Cameron Tuesday.

Pat Robinson of Burlington was a visitor here yesterday.

Arthur Smith of Rockdale was a Cameron visitor Tuesday.

E. H. Faulkner of Davilla was a business visitor in Cameron Tuesday.

Following a wiener roast and highligthing the affair, the boys held a "Get-Acquainted" meeting Friday night during which time each boy gave his name and told of his demonstration.

District Agent, W. C. David of Prairie View, met the boys in a special meeting following camp breakfast Saturday morning, during which he told the boys in a suggestion manner to go all out helping their fathers to plan and work during this period of prosperity and to complete worthwhile projects themselves and last, to purchase bonds with all surplus cash.

C. L. Redus, Negro County Agent, stated that the Encampment was an attempt to hold the interest of all 4-H boys in club work and to round out a year's program of work. NEW HIGH REACHED IN BOND SALES PROGRESS

Milam county's support of the war and participation in the Third War Loan brought a new high in bond buying Thursday, exceeding already the total subscribed in the April campaign.

Emory B. Camp, assistant treasury representative, compiled the first complete report for Milam county and telephoned the figures to The Herald around 9 a. m. today.

Up to the hour of report Milam county had purchased $3,291,444 in war bonds.

Mr. Camp pointed out that this figure is 60 per cent of the quota of over 5 million dollars. The Daily Herald in reporting the sales Wednesday which included only the Tuesday totals disclosed that 30 per cent of the quota had been reached.

Large purchases on Wednesday doubled the amount and pushed the percentage up to 60. Verily the eyes of Texas and the nation are upon us!

In the April loan led by Oxsheer Smith, Milam county oversubscribed its quota by the largest percentage of any county in the nation.

Responsible for the phenominal increase over Tuesday reports was sales at First National Bank in Cameron where Henry M. Hefley, the President reported sales of $526,775. Mr. Hefley reported these sales to Chas. M. Hicks, county chairman who in turn released them to The Herald. The total for Wednesday as reported by Mr. Hicks was $577,750 which included the First National Bank sum.

Oxsheer Smith, dynamic financial leader and key man in the current and past War Loan drives, reported a sale of $525,000 in bonds which he was personally able to make and which accounted for a large per cent of the increase over Tuesday figures.

In the current sales the community and town of Gause was a standout. Already the people there have purchased more war bonds than have been reported from Thorndale and Buckholts combined. Gause held a big bond rally Tuesday night, under direction of Oxsheer Smith.

BOND TOTAL RISES TO $3,533,161 IN COUNTY

Milam county's bond total had risen to $3,533,161 Tuesday afternoon as totals were completed for the day by Emory B. Camp, assistant treasury representative.

The total includes the sales for Tuesday of $81,286.

The campaign has reached a difficult stage and during the next ten days special efforts are to be put forth to contact every home in the county. The theme for the remainder of the campaign, said Mr. Camp will be "back the attack with a bond in every home."

Meetings are being arranged for the several communities.

Lieut. Frank Newton Writes Widow of Fallen Comrade on Ill Fated Mission Over German Lines; War Department Sends Letter With Death Notice

Lt Glover Beazley, Jr., of Tampa, Florida, navigator aboard the "San Antonio Rose," Liberator bomber of Lt. Frank M. Newton, has been reported killed in action.

At first Lt. Beazley was reported missing. This week the War Department in Washington sent a letter to the widow of the dead flyer and enclosed the letter from Lt. Newton.

A Tampa newspaper printed the story and a clipping was mailed to Mrs. W. R. Newton, Sr., mother of Lt. Newton. Here is the story and the letter from Lt. Newton:

Lt. Glover Beazley, Jr., 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glover Beazley, 5709 Central Ave., who was reported missing nearly a year ago, was killed in action while on a bombing mission in the Middle East war theatre.

With the official War Department notice came a letter to his widow Mrs. Elizabeth Beazley, from Lt. Frank M. Newton, pilot of the plane on which the Tampan was navigator.

"Died Bravely"

"Believe me my heart is with you when I say that he died while fighting bravely under fire," wrote Lt. Newton, a prisoner in Germany. "He had been my navigator for some time and he never failed. Shortly after we were attacked by enemy fighters he received fatal wounds from which he did not recover.

"I was with him for a brief moment before the Great Pilot above commissioned him in the Air Corps of Heaven, and I know that he was a true soldier, a brave man to the very end. He said, 'Newt, tell Elizabeth I love her.'"

Graduate of Tampa U

A native of Port Tampa City, Lt Beazley was graduated from Hillsborough High School and the University of Tampa where he received his Bachelor of Science degree and was a member of Sigma Pappa Nu Fraternity. He received his commission at Coral Gables and was overseas in July, 1942.

Surviving are his parents, his widow, the former Miss Elizabeth Rosse, 5801 Central Ave., and a brother, Ray, B. Beazley, 5709 Central Ave.

Famous "Bazooka" is On Display Here With Other U. S. Weapons

The "Bazooka," new sensational weapon of this war is on display at the J. C. Penney store in Cameron.

The weapon is a part of a display of weapons loaned to the J. C. Penney Company here during the 3rd War Loan drive.

J. M. Boehner, manager of the store, was happy to accommodate the display. Master Sgt. Buenzo who lives in Cameron, brought the display to Cameron from Camp Hood. The display is a representative cross section of modern weapons and ammunition.

The "Bazooka," which can be carried by one man, can destroy a tank and was named from the famous gas pipe musical instrument perfected by Bob Burns, the comedian.

AMERICAN 5TH ARMY ADVANCING IN SECTOR

The American 5th Army has taken new and important positions south of Naples to rout the Germans who are now in full retreat.

American artillery is dominating the bay of Napies and islands to the approaches have been taken by the Allies.

Heavy reinforcements continue to come in and the Allies are piling up numerical strength in men and equipment.

The Germans are under merciless air attacks as they try to get back to other positions north and west. A number of important towns have fallen to the American 5th Army under General Clark.

While the picture was one of encouragement The Herald heard that 3 Allied convoys were steaming into the Agean sea and this was taken to indicate a possible invasion of the Balkans. With the bridgehead in Italy now firmly established it would be good strategy to attack the Balkans since the Mediterranean sea is now under allied control.

The Red army continues to score the most important gains against the Germans. The Soviets are within 30 miles of Smolensk and have scored important advances all along the 700 mile front.

Smolensk was the first important city to fall to the Germans in their thrust at Moscow. It points like an arrow at the heart of European Russia.

The air war was steped up Sunday when large formations of fortress and Maraudor bombers crossed the channel to knock at German air fields and installations. Heavy damage was reported in the noon broadcast. The Americans lost only three fighters. Heavy air attacks on Japanese positions were reported in the communication from General MacArthur's headquarters in the South Pacific.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

"Jeep Nerves"—that's what Dan O'Neill calls the jumpy way some folks react to the strain of wartime living.

Not that Dan blames 'em. When you work 12 hours a day and travel in crowded busses—live in trailers and put up with inconveniences—it's only natural to get tense and irritable.

"Folks must learn to relax," says Dan, "and take it easy."

And Dan thinks he has the formula. Soon as he's through at the shop he comes straight home, picks out the comfortablest chair and pours himself a tall, cool glass of beer.

Then he sips it—slowly and appreciatively—like good beer should be enjoyed.

And by the time that glass of beer is gone, Dan says his disposition is as good as new . . . and the day's work seems well worth tackling again tomorrow.

It's a real effective formula. I know; I've tried it!

Women at Work for a Railroad at War

America needs millions of women to take over war jobs . . . to stay with those jobs . . . to help speed the day when our fighting men will return victorious!

Santa Fe women are answering this call all along the line.

Right now thousands of Santa Fe women are doing war-vital work to "keep 'em rolling." Many are pitching into "unglamorous" jobs . . . greasing engines, operating turntables, wielding shovels, working in blacksmith shops, and cleaning roller bearings. They take pride in their work, too!

Many of these women have husbands, sweethearts, brothers or sons in the armed forces. Many came to work to replace a Santa Fe relative who had been called into service. Others took jobs because they knew womanpower must step in when manpower goes to war.

☆ We of the Santa Fe salute these women who know that what they are doing is vital to Victory!

"Forever and a Day" Opens at Cameron Theatre Thursday

Nearly two years in the making, and with a cast of seventy-eight top stars and featured players in its colorful scenes, "Forever and a Day" comes to the Cameron Theatre Thursday and Friday as one of the most remarkable films ever to emerge from Hollywood.

Originally planned as a solely British picture for the benefit of British war charities, production plans were revised when the United States entered the war, and it now includes many distinguished Yankees in its cast and a large share of the profits will go to American war relief.

The proceeds from the distribution in each country will accrue to the benefit of some charity to be officially named by the government of that country. In the United States the proceeds from our National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The plot gives a vivid panorama of English history over the past century and a third and centers about a stately old house and the men and women who have lived in it.

Back in 1804 the bluff old Admiral Trimble (C. Aubrey Smith) built the structure in defiance against the threatened invasion of Napoleon. hoped it would always remain as a home for his descendants.

His son (Ray Milland) falls by Nelson's side at the Battle of Trafalgar, but he leaves a son to carry on, and the lives and loves and vicissitudes of those who came after him comprise the picturesque high-lights of the story, as one generation after another grows up in the sturdy old edifice.

Among the other noted players who appear in the different episodes are Claude Rains, Herbert Marshall, Charles Laughton, Ida Lupino, Brian Aherne, Victor McLaglen, Anna Lee, Cedric Hardwicke, Merle Oberon, Jessie Matthews, Edward Everett Horton, Roland Young, Robert Cummings, Elsa Lanchester, Donald Crisp and Una O'Connor, to name but a few of the stars in the Anglo-American production.

An equally distinguished group of top directors took charge of the various sequences, Rene Clair, Frank Lloyd, Edmund Goulding, Robert Stevenson, Victor Saville and Herbert Wilcox. These men, like most of the players and the writers who worked on the screen-play, gladly donated their ordinarily expensive efforts so that the picture costs would be as low as possible and the profits for charity high.

Some of the descendants come to America in search of wider horizons, and some of their descendants return at crucial times, such as in 1917 and in 1940, to lend a hand when needed The two modern protagonists (Ruth Warrick and Kent Smith) narrate part of the story and serve to tie together the various separate episodes; and it is this pair who, after a Luftwaffe bomb has finally demolished the old house, decide to rebuild it together—but they hope, in a safer and happier world than this has been.

AMERICANS SECURE IN BRIDGEHEAD AT NAPLES

Taking the initiative in the great invasion battle at Naples the American 5th Army was secure in its position and indications were that all danger of colapse of the initial thrust at the continent had passed.

The Germans were unable to dislodge the Americans in the critical days of Monday and Tuesday. Ships of the line offshore in the Mediterranean lobbed 16 inch shells into German positions and devastated lines of communication.

American air support was one of the deciding factors in the change in the side of battle. The Germans were unable to muster air support for their supreme effort and apparently had lost the battle.

The extent of the counter attacks were not known but apparently they were in sufficient strength to insure the American position.

Berlin admited Friday that the bridgehead of the 5th American army had been established.

The British 8th army had made contact with patrol elements of the American 5th and may be expected to join in the battle any hour.

Clayton Devers, who was seriously hurt an car wreck a few weeks ago is up and doing fine.

WORKING FOR VICTORY
Yesterday ..we Texans were busy building an empire of better homes, farms and factories . . . schools, churches and other institutions . . . acquired, supported and enjoyed by a free people under the American System of free enterprise. We, of this Company, pioneered in providing dependable, low-cost electric power for use by Texans in building this empire. For 31 years, we have planned and built ahead, growing in experience and resources . . . a business-managed free enterprise, owned and operated by and for Texans.
TODAY . . . we are very busy fighting and working for victory! More than 300 of the young men from this Company are in the armed services . . . fighting all over the world, on land, on sea and in the air.
The employees remaining here on the home front are keeping TP&L electric power on the war job 24 hours a day, 7 days a week . . . in military camps, air fields, vital war industries and for the needs of all of our customers. Amidst all manner of shortages . . . there is no shortage of electric power. And amidst rising costs of living . . . the price for TP&L residential and commercial service is only about one-half what it was during World War I.
We take occasion to call attention to those contributions to the war effort because they are made possible under the American system of free enterprise . . . one of our basic freedoms which our enemies are seeking to destroy.
tomorrow .. every real American wants his freedom of opportunity and the freedom of American enterprise to remain intact. We must win this war so that we can again go forward to new heights in a world in which the American Way of Life shall continue to demonstrate its superiority.
